SONNENKÖNIG OF SWITZERLAND

FACTSHEET : TITANIUM - Gas grill

Thanks to the barbecue unit's fine design and workmanship, your meat is ready to enjoy in almost no time – tender and delicious! The handy grill cover is an excellent heat retainer and the hard wood tables give the grill a striking elegance. The barbecue has two cooking grills and a warming grill.

The cast-iron burners heat the ceramic briquettes that lie above them, which in turn cook the food on the grill. The juices that flow naturally out of the food fall onto the hot ceramic briquettes below and evaporate. This vapour gives the food its unique grilled taste, and gives you an unforgettable barbecue experience!
